The Director Series Certificate equips directors with skills for driving transformation and strategic growth. It focuses on decision-making, resource alignment, and long-term vision development.

The program also emphasizes employee engagement and performance management, teaching directors to create positive work environments and implement effective performance systems. Core leadership skills such as communication and team building are covered, preparing directors to inspire their teams and drive meaningful change.

The cost of the directors series is $250. See program requirements for what the certificate offers.
